cations have been narrowed to two (2) applicants, namely, Johathan Wilker and Vance Bishop.

Mayor Nielson told the council he had checked into the background of both men and found them both to be very qualified for the position and that he felt he could work with either of the men. The Mayor then opened the floor for council discussion of the applicants.

Council Member Morrison stated he felt due to the fact that Council Member Dafoe was out of town for the last council meeting and had not had the opportunity to hear the interviews of the two men council should give him time to listen to the taped interviews.

Council discussed in detail the applications of each applicant regarding the needs of the city and salary and benefits the city would offer the man chosen for the position.
